River Trips —

Looks like the first trip will have three or four boats. Bob-Tom Thompson and Paul Jackson have expressed interest in driving. Mark & Linda Mathis will be out with their new boat as will Jim & Betty Jeffrey. Be sure to get your reservations in if you are planning to join the group.

Slalom Trips —

We had a very successful first trip. Maury Adler drove for the six of us who braved the elements. It turned out to be a beautiful day— cool waters, warm breezes, and more skiing than our out-of-shape bodies could handle. New to the lake this year were Kelly Podorsek and Kim Reed. Kelly is a young pro while, Kim was using the lake to improve her skiing. Leif Widmayer was skiing with a sprained ankle which didn't stop him from getting his five runs in. Gene Fulkerson helped with the driving as Catherine Ohl did a lot of observing. Our turns just kept coming up too fast.

There are already eight people signed up for the next trip and it should fill up soon. If you are interested, best get those reservations in now. ■

Stow your Gear!

by Gear Geek, Joe Cutts, Ski magazine, May/June 2002

Is it necessary to prepare skis for off-season storage? Yup. First, it's a good idea to apply a coat of wax to protect the bases from “drying out” during the summer. Any wax will do, no reason to waste the expensive stuff. Don't scrape it. Just leave it until next winter.

The shop guys may also recommend backing off the tension on binding springs by loosening the DIN down as far as it will go. Leave a note on your skis to remind you that you need to reset the DIN.

Store your boards in a dry, cool place and your skis will be fine until the snow flies again. ■

Boat Driver

UPDATE

New Boat Drivers —

Heard a rumor that Betty & Jim Jeffrey bought a ski boat and will be bringing it out to the river on the first trip of the summer. Also got a call from Mike Betts — seems he bought a new boat and would like to join us this summer.

Boat Driver Assignments —

I am waiting for the boat drivers to get their forms back to me before I assign trips. Looks like the first trip will have three or four boats. Bob-Tom Thompson and Paul Jackson have expressed interest in driving. Mark & Linda Mathis will be out with their new boat as will Jim & Betty. ■

Fitness

Improve Your Skiing This Summer —

excerpted from Stu Campbell, Ski magazine, May/June 2002

Have you ever watched the professionals ski? The best skiers show very little up and down movement, but spread their feet apart and smoothly roll both skis from edge to edge. There is no pivoting of the skis and rarely any skid—just arc-to-arc carving.

Balancing on inline skates is identical to standing over the sweet spot on a modern slalom ski. There is little margin for error. You can't be too far forward, and sitting back will put you down in a second.

Find a wide paved area with a gentle pitch. Try a local school. Set up some traffic cones and "run gates." Wear a helmet, knee and elbow pads and wrist protectors, and "ski" this slope all summer. The more miles you skate, the more ready you'll be to make precise turns and impress CCSC next season. ■

Chef's CORNER

by Gene Fulkerson

Lamb Cutlets in Filo Pastry—

Ingredients

- 8 double lamb cutlets
- 2 oz butter
- 2 small onions, finely chopped
- french mint, finely chopped
- salt, pepper, nutmeg
- 8 leaves filo pastry
- melted butter

Preparation

Preheat oven to 425° F. Remove all fat from cutlets and season with pepper. Use a piece of trimmed fat to grease a very hot frying pan. Brown cutlets fast to sear both sides, without cooking the meat inside. Remove from pan. Heat butter in pan and slowly cook onions until softened. Add mint. Cook for another minute. Season with salt, pepper and nutmeg.

Allow to cool. Lay out filo and brush with melted butter. Place a cutlet on each leaf. Spoon onion mixture onto lamb. Wrap filo to make a parcel. Brush with more butter. Bake for 10 minutes.

Best paired with a Pinot Noir. I especially like Wild Horse. Serves 8. ■

Ski Patrollers Form Union—

The Denver Post reports that six pro ski patrol unions have agreed to join together in a national labor organization.

Patrols at Aspen, Breckenridge, The Canyons, Crested Butte, Killington and Steamboat — about 500 patrollers in all — are already unionized. These patrols have formed the United Professional Ski Patrols of America. A national union is the first step in improving the working conditions of patrollers nationwide.

Snowboarding Lawsuit Dismissed—

According to Wyoming newspapers, a U.S. District Judge has dismissed a wrongful death lawsuit against Jackson Hole Mountain Resort. A 16-year-old boy, who held a season pass at the resort, was jumping a tabletop and died on landing from a skull fracture and chest injuries. The family claimed that Jackson Hole had changed the obstacle the night before and hadn't adequately tested it.

The judge, however, ruled that jumping in a manmade terrain park "specially designated and designed for such activities, it is an inherent danger that the participants may lose control and land improperly causing severe or fatal injuries."

Aspen Gets X-Games—

In 2003, Aspen will once again host ESPN's Winter X Games. The seventh edition of the games will be held at Aspen's Buttermilk late next January and early February 2003. It is the second year in a row the resort will host the X Games, which were previously held at Vermont's Mount Snow.

Mammoth Mountain—

Spring storms left more than a foot of new snow at Mammoth Mountain. Memorial Day traditionally signals the end of the season at Mammoth, but locals know that it is not unusual for the mountain to stay open well into June and even July.

Squaw Valley—

With over two feet of new snow in mid-April, and a base of nearly ten feet of snow on the upper mountain, Squaw Valley USA is expected to remain open for skiing and until Memorial Day. In conjunction with the change to spring operations, Squaw Valley USA's daily ticket price will be reduced to $38 and include free use of the High Camp Swimming Lagoon and Spa at High Camp. Combine a day on the slopes with a dip in the high altitude pool and spa or a spin on the ice at the Olympic Ice Pavilion.

Vail Closes Heavenly Deal—

Vail Resorts, Inc. and American Skiing Company have closed the sale of Heavenly Ski Resort to Vail for $102 million (including $2.7 million of assumed debt), less a cash adjustment of $2.8 million for a net sale price of $99.2 million.

Whistler/Blackcomb—

The season at Whistler Mountain will continue until June 9, and then close as summer skiing begins on the Blackcomb glaciers on June 10 until August 4.

Air New Zealand Sell Three Ski Areas—

Air New Zealand has completed the sale of the three ski areas in New Zealand's South Island. The new owners are Southern Alpine Resort Recreation, a conglomeration of New Zealand businesses including former senior management who paid NZ$27 million (US $12.3m) for Coronet Peak, The Remarkables and Mt Hutt.

In announcing the sale, Air New Zealand Managing Director & CEO confirmed that the airline would continue to support the ski operations as a key part of the South Island Tourism industry.
