SOUNDING BORED

by Catherine Ohl

September and October are still my personal favorite time of the year to go to the river. The September trips lived up to my expectations—great weather, little river traffic and just a heck of a lot of fun. I believe that October will be even better.

Win A Ski Trip to Whistler—

LA Council is having its annual Snow Gala on Saturday, November 8, 2003. This is a chance for all the women to get dressed up and dance the night away. In conjunction with this event, LAC raffles off a bunch of great prizes. Winner need not be present. This year the Grand Prize is a trip for two, including air, lodging, lifts, transfers, a picnic, dinner, to Whistler for LAC Ski Week.

Elections—

It's that time of year for elections. We will be voting on President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasure. After the election, the appointed board positions are filled. Most everyone is willing to do the job for another term but would be happy to train someone new. We for sure need a Vice-President and a Reservations Coordinator. If interested, just tell one of the current board members. We always like to see new people get involved and hope to give you a fun and rewarding time. ■

Boat Driver UPDATE

by Gene Fulkerson

I can't stress it enough — We need boat drivers! We still only have the three drivers from last year — Catherine Ohl, Mark Mathis and Paul Jackson. If you, or anyone you know, has a boat appropriate for water skiing, please call me at 858-467-9469 or email me at gene@pacificrimalliance.org.

Snow Ski Trips—

Your Rat's membership also gives you membership in LA Council and the Far West Ski Association (FWSA). Check out the ski trips planned for 2004 on page 8. Also, Pacific Rim will be going to Switzerland to ski and Barcelona to visit in March 2004. They still have a few openings.

Boat Driver Assignments—

Catherine and Paul will be driving the first trip in October. Catherine, Mark and Paul are all available to drive for the last trip in October. In addition, Jim Hess and Randy Walker will be out with their boats. They will probably be driving the kids around since they are all knee boarding and wake boarding these days. ■

Trip Wrap – Sept 5-7, 2003

by Gene Fulkerson

I absolutely love this time of the year. The kids are in school and not so many people come out to the river which leaves us with great water to ski on.

Jim Hess and family arrived at Park Moabi with Peter Catalano early on Friday and put up the campsite to the delight of trip leader Gene Fulkerson. Paul Jackson was the designated boat driver for the weekend but Catherine Ohl and Jim Hess took up some of the slack.

Peter, Jan Hess and Stephanie Thompson stayed up to all hours on Friday night talking. That didn't stop Jan and Peter from catching some early morning glass on Saturday. Jan went back to snooze while Peter continued to be a great help to Gene.

Randy Walker and Maria DeGnore arrived late and disappeared into their motor home, not to be seen again until the crack of 1 PM, the next day. The only reason they even got up then was that Gene disconnected their power to see if there was life within. There was.

Brian Jackson was out with his very new knee board and delighted in showing everyone his stuff. He's really quite good. I bet the little girls will be knee boarding soon.

Jim took the kids, Kristine Aves, Courtney Thompson, Danielle Hess and Brian out for many runs on the toys of their choice — knee board, horseshoe ski, and, of course, the inner tube. Even Steph & Jan took a spin on the tube.

The Ashleys (Thompson & Clark) joined us for a few ski runs. They are best of friends, neighbors and freshmen in High School. They were whipped from their first two weeks of school and so spent much of their time in their camper talking on their cell phones to their friends stuck at home.

Rounding out the group for the weekend were Agnes Johnson, eating sunflower seeds and skiing up a storm, Craig Henderson, helpful as always and Jami Thibault with a new ski.

Everyone celebrated the September birthday, Catherine (8th), Stephanie (11th) and Carmen Jackson (9th). We had our dinners and some of Gene's private stash wine served to us by a bevy of good looking men. The meal was Catherine's choice, salmon and chicken. ■

Trip Wrap - Sept 19-21, 2003

by Gene Fulkerson

Wow! What another great weekend. The weather and ski conditions were perfect. It was hot during the day but nice and cool at night.

Craig Henderson was the first to arrive since he only had to come from Las Vegas. Vaughn was unavailable to get the trailer so Craig tried to pick it up. BUT his name was not on THE LIST. When Paul Jackson showed up, he put Craig's name (and any other name he could think of) on the trailer list. Craig hauled the trailer for us and when Jim, Jan & Danielle Hess arrived with Peter Catalano, camp was set up. Gene Fulkerson was ecstatic that everything was ready for him by the time he arrived very, very late.

Catherine Ohl and Paul Jackson were the designated boat drivers for the weekend. We had a great crew this weekend and everything seemed to get done before it's time.

Peter, as is becoming a tradition, cooked everyone's breakfast to order — omelettes, eggs, pancakes, potatoes. David Lewins, 5, was the trailer troll. He wouldn't just let just anyone take anything from the trailer. You had to tell him what, where and why before he would release supplies.

Agnes Johnson was out for her last trip of the year. She hates the cold and wasn't too sure about coming when she woke up Saturday to a slight chill in the air. But it warmed up nicely and she got all the skiing in she could handle. Ellen Slaton was the only person seen to be wearing a wet suit. Carmen Jackson spent a lot of quality time floating on her raft while sipping a special brew.

Cathy Schulte brought her daughter Jarica and Gavin Kerr. Gavin tried to learn to wakeboard but Jarica's board was not big enough for him and the club equipment was lacking. Hopefully he will come back with his own (or borrowed) wake board.

Jim entertained the kids behind his boat mostly on the inner tube. Paul took Danielle Hess and Brian Jackson out for after hour boat rides on the knee board. Danielle had just gotten up for the first time at lunch but that evening, encouraged by Brian, she was aggressively crossing the wake. Kristine Aves wore herself out that afternoon on the tube.

Raquel Craig was back out after an absence due to some knee surgery (there's a lot of that going around these days) and she brought her very good friend Dana (pronounced "Donna" Altschuler). Jim Jeffery was also testing the waters after double knee surgery. Since snow skiing is his priority, he took it easy this weekend. Jim's new knees didn't stop Betty from getting her fill of skiing.

Lloyd Lewins and Alice Garcia showed up with a surprise, Andrew, age 6 months. He looks just like David. Alice's sister Gloria French helped watch the baby while they skied. Kelly French, who was signed up to ski but couldn't due to a sore back, helped with the efforts to get 5-year-old David skiing. He did great but wouldn't try it again.

Special thanks to Peter and Jim for all their help. These two men step up and gets the job done sometimes before Gene even know it needs doing. ■

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

by Catherine Ohl

Five Areas Reduce Skiing Costs—

Alta, Snowbird, Solitude and Brighton have expanded on the areas' Super Pass program for 2003-04, effectively reducing the price for lift ticket and transportation between the areas and 75 Salt Lake hotels to $40.

The Pass is available through twice as many local hotels, and adds the benefit of free bus or light-rail transit this season.

Alpine Meadows has cut its day ticket rate to $36, a $17 drop from last season.

After 15 years of flat visit totals, Alpine Meadows expects its day-ticket price cut will stimulate more traffic—so much so that the area will limit the number of people on the mountain per day this season.

Vail Tops Skier Poll—

SKI magazine's annual Top 60 readers' poll names Vail, CO, as the No. 1 ski resort in North America in its October issue, on sale next week. This is Vail's second straight year at No. 1 and twelfth time in the last 16 years.

The Top 10 Resorts in North America are as follows:

1. Vail, Colorado
2. Whistler/ Blackcomb, B.C.
3. Deer Valley, Utah
4. Snowmass, Colorado
5. Steamboat, Colorado
6. Breckenridge, Colorado
7. Sun Valley, Idaho
8. Beaver Creek, Colorado
9. Park City, Utah
10. Telluride, Colorado

WinterKids School Program Nationwide—

WinterKids, a Maine-based non-profit organization dedicated to improving the health of children, is partnering with the National Ski Areas Association (NSAA) to distribute the WinterKids Winter Sport Fitness Curriculum Guide nationwide.

The 140-page curriculum has been used in schools to help students learn better and improve their health and fitness by bringing kids outside in winter. This is particularly important, as studies have shown an alarming rise in obesity in children and that winter is when most kids hang out on the couch watching TV.

The outdoor learning effort has produced higher test scores and fitter kids.

Aspen Supports Climate Bill

Aspen Skiing Company is publicly supporting the McCain-Lieberman Climate Stewardship Act, a bipartisan plan to reduce heat-trapping emissions of greenhouse gases from U.S. sources. The act is now in the U.S. Senate.

Scientific models suggest that as warming continues, we will experience increased extreme weather events, warmer nights, wetter shoulder seasons, and reduced weather predictability. All of these changes affect skiing.

Aspen Skiing Company has implemented a host of climate protection programs, including wind power purchases, comprehensive lighting retrofits, on-slope microhydroelectric power generation and green building design. ■

FITNESS – STRETCHING

Ski Flex: Flexibility, Fitness, and Conditioning for Better Skiing

by Paul Frediani & Harald Harb

It is well established that stretching improves ones' ability to ski or board. Resistance exercises strengthen the muscles, but they also shorten them. Stretching makes muscles longer again. This leads to flexibility and greater range of motion in the joints which allows one to get the most out of a training program while helping one to ski/board longer, in better control, and with less fatigue.

The Ski Flex program is simple, quick and enjoyable. The program shows one how to prepare and warm up the specific muscles used on the mountain. The program also encompasses functional stretching and explains how to incorporate it into everyday living activities.

Stretching is also key to counteract skiing's weather conditions. The cold can tighten your muscles and shorten your tendons and sap your energy. It is equally important to stretch after skiing/boarding. And remember you are never too old or young to start a stretching program. Just a few minutes a day and you will see how much more limber you will be on the slopes.

Many ski fitness books in the past have emphasized primarily physical training during the off-season period. In the last few years, flexibility and stretches have gotten increasingly larger attention. This book is entirely focused on stretches. ■

KID'S KORNER

CA Snow Passport Program—

The 2003/2004 California Snow Passport is a non-transferable document which entitles the fourth, fifth or sixth grader to whom it is issued to obtain complimentary three one-day lift tickets at the following 32 participating California and Nevada resorts: Alpine Meadows, Bear Valley Cross-Country, Bear Valley, Boreal Mountain Resort, Diamond Peak, Dodge Ridge, Donner Ski Ranch, Heavenly Valley, Homewood Mountain Resort, June Mountain, Kirkwood, Kirkwood Cross Country, Mammoth Mountain, Montecito-Sequoia Lodge Cross Country, Mountain High, Mt. Rose Ski Tahoe, Mt. Shasta, Northstar-at-Tahoe, Royal Gorge Cross Country Ski Resort, Sierra Summit, Sierra-at-Tahoe Ski Resort, Ski Sunrise, Snow Summit, Snow Valley, Soda Springs, Squaw Valley, Sugar Bowl, Tahoe Cross Country, Tamarack Lodge Resort, Yosemite's Badger Pass.

The purpose of the passport is to introduce nine, ten and eleven year-olds to the sports of skiing, snowboarding, tubing and snow gliding. Also, to remind families that spending time on the mountains is a healthy, safe, and FUN family activity.

This is a great age for children to learn a new sport with ease and to excel rapidly. Through the Passport Program and on-mountain experience, students can see the lessons of their 4th, 5th or 6th grade science studies in action such as water resources at work, animal predator/prey relationships, geology structure, and the physics of lift mechanics.

Passport Holders will be given a booklet that contains 3 coupons for a complimentary lift ticket at each of the 32 participating resorts in California and Nevada. Kids must be accompanied by a paying adult, and each adult can bring up to two 4th, 5th or 6th graders. Some restrictions may apply.

The Passport is valid from December 1, 2003 through May 1, 2004, excluding the Program Blackout Dates which vary by ski resort. The blackout dates are identified by each ski area in the Passport.

Every resort has equipment that kids can rent. Check the California Snow Passport for special offers at participating resorts.

If the kids have never skied or boarded before, they can take a lesson! It's the easiest, quickest and safest way to learn. Refer to the Passport for special offers at participating resorts.

There is an $18.00 application fee to cover the cost of processing the application and mailing the Passport. The Passport is valued at hundreds of dollars! Make sure to participate this year! ■
