BoatDriver UPDATE

River Trips —

What a season we had this year at the river. And although the season is officially over, Gene wants to make one last trip to the river. We have planned it for the Thanksgiving weekend. Everyone is invited. Check out page 5 for more details. Be sure to RSVP to Gene so he can manage the food.

Elections —

It's that time of year again when we need to elect officers for next year. As usual all positions are open. Some folks have already come forward to offer their help. If you are interested or know of someone who is interested, please contact any board member. We need you! ■

Catherine

Yes! I want to help.

I would like to nominate the following:

by Gene Fulkerson

The initial queue for next year has been established—

Catherine Ohl., Paul Jackson, Bob-Tom

Thompson, and Dave Makowski. We averaged 2 boat per trip in 2001.

New Boat Drivers —

Please welcome our new boat drivers for next year. Both Larry Davis and Mark Mathis have bought new boats and will be available to drive for us next year. In addition, Gary Cann with his Centurion will be joining the queue.

Thanksgiving —

I hope to see lots of you (and all the boat drivers) at the river Thanksgiving weekend. It's going to be rather informal. I will deep fry a turkey on Friday and will BBQ what ever you bring for Saturday dinner. It should be fun.

My Sons —

I am so proud our my kids who took my old race boat and rebuilt the engine so that the boat is consistently going about 125 mph in a quarter mile. As a result, they placed second in the NJBA pro gas flat bottom boats for the 2001 season. ■

Copper Donates Money—

Copper Mountain, CO, became the first ski resort in the nation to open last Thursday (10/18), although the official opening is still set for November 3. But with a good covering of snow, the resort decided to give snow sliders a two-day preview. A $10 donation in lieu of lift ticket went to the American Red Cross disaster relief efforts.

One run was open with an 18-inch base of manmade snow.

Real Estate Gets Boost—

With the economy and world situation sending the real estate market into the doldrums, there is one bright light on the Colorado resort housing horizon. Private residence clubs—units similar to luxury hotels and shared by as many as 12 owners—are enjoying strong sales this year. They are individual units that cost more than $1 million each and are part of a members-only club that includes maid service, spas, private chefs and all the accoutrements of a five-star hotel.

Silverton Ski Resort To Open December—

Plans for a new ski resort in Silverton, CO, are proceeding on schedule. Lift towers were erected at the end of September. The 100% advanced terrain area is scheduled to open this winter. The 1,600-acre ski area sports 50-degree avalanche prone slopes on the north side of 13,487-foot Storm Peak.

Founder Aaron Brill built the chairlift on 300 acres of private land and plans to expand the ski area though a permit to use adjacent Bureau of Land Management (BLM) land. The BLM has not yet determined how extensive an environmental impact study may be required.

Picabo Has Nothing to Hide—

Picabo Street and former Skiing magazine editor Dana White have collaborated to produce Street's biography: "Picabo: Nothing to Hide." The book is published by Contemporary Books, a division of McGraw-Hill. (Hardcover price: $24.95.) It is scheduled to hit bookstores November 23. ■

Banana Crêpes Flambé—

Banana Mixture

3/4 stick butter
1/2 cup brown sugar
10 bananas, sliced
1/2 cup Grand Marnier
1/8 cup Bacardi Black Rum

Melt butter in a hot skillet. Blend in sugar. Add bananas and coat with butter sugar mixture. Add Grand Marnier and top with Bacardi Black. Mix well with bananas. Be aware that the flame under the pan will ignite the alcohol in the pan. This should be done in an open area. Be very careful and do not spell mixture while flaming. When done the mixture should be thick and gooey.

Crêpe

1 cup all-purpose flour	2 eggs
1/2 cup milk	4 tsp. salt
1/2 cup water	2 tbs. melted butter

Measure ingredients exactly as consistency is important. Blend all ingredients for at least one minute. Mixture should look like heavy cream when complete. Use a crêpe maker or medium hot teflon pan. Slightly brown only one side.

Presentation

Whipped Cream	Chocolate Syrup
Cherry Preserves	Sliced Almonds

Lay crêpe open on a plate. Place bananas in the middle with a dollup of whipped cream on each end. Fold each remaining side over the middle. Add whipped cream in middle topped with a dollup of preserve. Drip chocolate over crêpe. Voila! You're done. Bon Appetite. ■

T-Shirts Here!

The ski season is almost over. What are you waiting for? Hurry up and get your shirts. They're great quality, short-sleeve tees at a great price. What more could you want? Show some Rat pride. To get yours, call Paul Jackson at (310) 320-0198.

More River Fun! Oct. 5-7, 2001

by Cindy Lemos

We were the first to arrive at Peninsula #7 on Friday. I rode out with Cathy Schulte and Teresa Gonzalez and we got there around 5:30 PM. It's so different that early on Friday! No cars or RVs around the horseshoe. No tents on the beach. We decided to set up our camp and then headed to Topock Gorge for dinner.

I'd been told by the waiter with the "tude" on the Arizona side and been warned to only order the fish & chips, so it was a totally enjoyable experience. I liked the outdoor deck over the River and could imagine quite a party taking place there— have to work on that for the next Rats season!

When we returned to camp, another party had arrived— Ed Howard and Ellen Slaton. We opened wine and began the task of putting up the kitchen tarp (because of course we all wanted early morning runs!)

It was worth it! The weather was beautiful and the water was nicer than it had been in September, but most of us girlie girls needed our shorties out there. Lots of people showed up and made this a 3-boat trip with Catherine Ohl and Bob-Tom Thompson, with his new boat, as our captains. Larry Davis with daughter Melanie brought a fourth boat, so we also got in a TON of skiing that weekend.

Lot of people and families came out! Bob-Tom and Stephanie Thompson brought their girls, Ashley & Courtney. Dennis McMullin & Cristina Cardenas showed up Saturday morning from Laughlin with the inventory. Rick Fisher, Carol Armstrong, Laurie Sutherland and Carlton Joseph also showed up Saturday after a good nights sleep in Needles. They don't know what they missed as the weather at the river Friday night was perfect.

We seem to have angered the River gods however, as each and every boat had a line problem and a few of these incidents involved massive river dragging efforts to retrieve an anchor severed as the boat sucked up the line. First Catherine cut her anchor line. With his strong lungs, Ben Stern was able to get under her boat and untangle the mess.

Next, Larry Davis cut his anchor line while attempting to get a sunset run in. He cut his rope past his bouy and hence lost his anchor and had to pull his boat out that evening. Gene Fulkerson spent the better part of Sunday morning, dragging the river and was rewarded with finally pulling up Larry's anchor.

Last but not least, Bob-Tom cut his ski rope on Sunday's glass run. Catherine's crew was returning from their glass run and came to the rescue with her mask. Bob-Tom, Ben and Charlie Logan had already worked for more than half hour trying to free the prop. With the mask, Charlie could actually see what he was doing and was able to free the prop in about five minutes.

On Saturday night we were treated to a wonderful thunder & lightning display that brought rain in the middle of the night. I was

Carlton Joseph & Laurie Sutherland

Bob-Tom Thompson's new boat

Larry Davis & Ellen Slaton

Dennis McMullin & Cristina Cardenas

awakened to water dripping on me from the openings in my tent ceiling and was forced to secure a rainflap at 3 AM! Take my word for it, it's not easy. My tent looked a bit odd in the morning, as I'd managed to get it on totally wrong. But it brought a gorgeous sunrise and the best morning water I'd ever skied on Sunday morning.

Once again it was a wonderful weekend filled with good food, great water skiing and lots of new and old friends. Can't wait til next season! ■

Halloween Treats! Oct 18-20, 2001

Just when you thought the weekends couldn't get any better, they do. The weather was perfect and the wind gods stayed away. And from 7-9 AM, both days, only our four boats were the only boats out on the river. It was awesome.

Boat drivers for the weekend were Paul & Carmen Jackson, Dave & Tina Makowski and Catherine Ohl & Gene Fulkerson. Gene did his normal outstanding job of leading the troops – beginning with an ample supply of flavored Martinis and smoked salmon. Dinner was a fabulous chicken and pork loin. Dessert was bananas flambe (recipe on page 3).

Bob-Tom and Stephanie Thompson

brought their boat for the kids. And the kids had a blast on the inner tube and horseshoe ski. Courtney Thompson is even skiing these days. Bob and Richard Phares may have worked harder than our regular boat drivers with the kids.

Bob-Tom's boat karma is still shaky. First his anchor line snapped (no, he didn't cut it). As a result, Gene, Richard and Cindy Lemos when on a dragging expedition. They did manage to pull up an anchor but it wasn't Bob. And it wouldn't grab the sand. Paul then lent his spare anchor and it took about four trys to get it hook. Later Bob was towed in when he boat just refused to start. It turned out to be a clogged fuel line.

Ellen Slaton, Jayne Glodowski, and Dan Kowieski were the first to arrive at the river. They were soon followed by Catherine & Gene. They all pitched in and got the kitchen tarp up as the sun set. It was pretty entertaining to watch Gene and Jayne attempt to put the new mantels on the lanterns. Then they were off to Topock for dinner.

When they arrived back at our campsite, tent city had been built by Jami Thibault & Julie Wilder, and Raquel Craig and Sherri Reid (yes, Sherri camped out this trip), RV row was established by Mark & Linda Mathis, Richard Phares and Michelle Rives, Bob-Tom & Stephanie Thompson and with a new one, Dave & Tina Makowski, Cathy Schulte, Teresa Gonzales and Cindy Lemos were the last to arrive since they started off their drive after going to CCSC's happy hour.

Saturday saw the arrival of Lloyd Lewins, Alice Garcia, Dave Phillips, Carol Armstrong, Dennis McMullin and Cristina Cardenas. Dennis and Cristina arrived with the inventory and lighter wallets after spending the night in Laughlin. They camped out on Saturday night so as to get the glass run on Sunday.

The Halloween Party was a success. The kids had to be banned from the trailer since they were caught trying to find the candy. We managed to re-channel their enthusiasm towards cutting, scraping and carving pumpkins. It was scary watching the kids handle knives. They were supervised and no one got cut. And their pumpkins were great.

You can see by the pictures that the kids were great in costume. They were all winner and got pumpkin mugs with skeleton stirrers, glow sticks and shirts. Cassie, Jordyn Mathis and Courtney were all cheer leaders. Teresa was teaching them new cheers. Ryan was a doctor and Brian Jackson showed his colors as a skunk. Michelle Mathis was pioneer, Ashley was a devil, Alec Makowski was a samari and Kristen Makowski was a witch.

Since we had just replaced the glass in our lanterns, we decided to do away with the piñata this year. Instead Gene provided his kid with a pump basket and Catherine distributed the candy to the adults and the kids were forced to "Trick or Treat." It was treat all around. David "Scooby Doo" Lewins was so funning and bouncing off of everything after just a few pieces of candy. ■
